

WINDOW TO THE WORLD

Germany is full of forests and woodland creatures, and if you live in the countryside, it's not unusual to see tall pine and larch trees like these outside your window. In the open space, draw what you see outside your window right now.

